EASTER AT HARVEST

www.harvestchurcheugene.com

I Will Rise

John 20:1-10

The One Thing:

Fresh Starts Are Not

“I Have it All _____” Starts.

Fresh Starts Are

“I’ve _____

of Jesus to Say Yes” Starts.

Easter Means There’s . . .

1. Forgiveness for the _____ and _____.

John 20:3-10

2. Love For the _____ and _____.

John 20:3-8

3. Grace For the _____ and _____.

John 20:11-18

When was the last time you froze up—your brain spinning but nothing really happening behind the scenes?

You feel stuck in regret, burned out on religion, or just quietly disconnected from everyone. You’ve tried to fix yourself, power through, or ignore the questions—but the screen of your soul is still locked.

“Ctrl+Alt+Grace” is a series about what happens when Jesus steps into that frozen place and offers a different kind of restart—not a self-improvement plan, but a new beginning you can’t manufacture on your own.

Walking through the stories of John 20–21, we’ll meet people who were afraid, ashamed, doubting, and done... and see how Jesus met each of them with a reset they never saw coming.

Whether you’re not sure what you believe, you walked away from church a long time ago, or you’re just desperate for more hope than the headlines and self-help can give, this is an invitation to press pause, interrupt the patterns that aren’t working, and discover what happens when grace becomes your new operating system.
